Five years integrated B.A., LL.B. (Hons.) and B.B.A., LL.B. (Hons.) Degree Programs
One year LL.M Program in Corporate Laws and IPR Laws.

Since the initiation of its academic sojourn in 2001, NLUJ has produced some of the finest minds across the spectrum of legal practitioners and scholarship for the focus in the institution is not just on impartation of legal knowledge, but on creation of a collaborative, distinctive legal education ethos. The University's wholehearted endeavors have been primarily focused on: consolidation of academic learning; inculcation of the highest ethical standards in our talented students; honouring the canonical legacy of legal systems while contributing pro actively towards its timely transmogrification; driving academic innovation and transforming the sphere of education for a prismatic future.

The University has the stature of a monolith in the legal education arena and attained glory by consistently securing an eulogistic ranking in Ministry of Human Resource Development initiated National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF) for gauging academic excellence in premier Law institutions and won the prestigious Asia's No. 1 Brand Award 2018 and India's No. 1 Brand Award 2017 in quick succession.

The University premises its entire academic and research endeavor around its haloed motto 'Knowledge is Empowerment'. The cornerstones that provide the foundation of our educational mission are the life of the mind, participatory learning, interdisciplinary inquiry, and an education for future leaders. Located on an aesthetically congenial residential campus in the Blue City of India, the University offers a rigorous and interdisciplinary professional education that blends the study of law with humanities, social sciences, and management. Students, faculty, and staff form a small, tightly knit community devoted to the life of the intellectual inquiry and rigour. The teaching pedagogy is innovative and prolegomenous aiming to create scholars who can carve their own paths and build upon the instruction offered to them through a host of resources and platforms. The institution does not seek to impose a single viewpoint or style of thought on its students but encourages proliferation and amaranthine learning.

Our Graduates do many things in their careers, and they all take with them the analytic skills nourished during their years at NLUJ. With an environment focused on the acquisition of broad and basic knowledge of law, an understanding of the functioning of the legal system, and the development of analytic abilities of the highest order; a degree at the University prepares students for any professional role they might choose -legal practice or legal education, entrepreneurial ventures, international private or public law practice, corporate practice, government service, alternative dispute resolution including arbitration and mediation, or pro bono work with non-profit organizations.

A vigorous classroom environment coupled with our thriving research centers and programs enrich our students' education through daily lectures, roundtable discussions, and conferences, and also serve as blueprints for resultant scholarly output and student involvement on issues and activities in multifarious spheres of law.

A major mission at the University has been to develop and disseminate knowledge through scholarly research that critically analyzes the development of law and related disciplines. The institution's research mission is broad, encompassing a broad range of thought from the empirical to the theoretical; from pure legal topics to far-reaching interdisciplinary inquiry; from local, state, and national to international and comparative law. Synchronously, the faculty members are concerned with the interaction between law and society in a myriad of ways, and draw on economics, cultural studies, public policy, feminist theory, history, political science, management, and other disciplines. The interdisciplinary faculty pursues innovative work that expands the understanding of the law and influences the global community.

In furtherance of its zeal towards augmentation of scholarly research, the students and faculty of NLUJ publish regularly in journals of national and international repute. The Corporate Law Society and Constitutional Law Society engage in the most contemporaneous debates and brain storming sessions in the respective spheres of Corporate Governance and Constitutional mandate. The University also encourages quality publications and wide dissemination of ideas through its many publications namely NLUJ Law Review, Trade Law & Development (TL&D), Indian Journal of Arbitration Law (IJAL), Journal on Governance, Journal of Comparative Constitutional Law & Administrative Law Quarterly (CALQ), Journal of Intellectual Property Studies (JIPS) and The Indian Journal of Legal Theory (IJLT).

NLUJ has a number of strategic interdisciplinary research groups working together on major problems affecting the country and the world. We actively encourage all of our researchers and students to stretch their boundaries and contribute to fields like Intellectual Property, Arbitration, Tax Law, Transactional Law, Capital Markets, Gender Studies, Legal Theory, Child Rights Advocacy, and Competition Law. The University is also a much acclaimed member of the BRICS Law Institute including 6 global Universities namely Pontifical Catholic University, Brazil; University of Sao Paulo; Ural State Law University, Russia; Beijing Union University, China; University of Pretoria, South Africa and National Law University Jodhpur as its signatories for encouraging international legal cooperation.

Our graduates, at the crest of their skills and acumen, are sought after by globally top law firms and have attained leadership roles at eminent social justice organizations, law firms, NGOs, governmental entities and academic institutions. Jobs at prestigious international law firms like Herbert Smith Freehills and Linklaters LLP have been secured by our meritorious and assiduous scholars while others have gone on to work towards partnerships in leading national law firms.

13 students of NLUJ have won the coveted Aditya Birla scholarship till date which entitles them to receive scholarship during their entire time span on the campus and also benefit from exposure to the diverse pool of talent available within the Aditya Birla Group.

Regular academic events and lecture series hosted at the University are certain raisers to diverse spheres of thought and concern in the contemporaneous realm of Law and help students analyze law in action. The organizational endeavor, along with spirited participation, develop the co-curricular exposure of students and serves them in go stead in the years ahead. The year 2019 witnessed the organization of the first edition of its India Alumni Lecture Programme (IALP) by Herbert Smith Freehills; organization of a two day Workshop on Biodiversity Laws under the GOI-UNDP-GEF Global Access and Benefit Sharing (ABS) Project 2017-19; a training programme for the Group A officers of IP & TAFS cadre for Ministry of Corporate Affairs; organization of the first NLUJ Deal Mediation Competition; the organization of the prestigious Tenth NLU Antitrust Law Moot Court Competition, 2019; workshop on Banking Sector at the cross-roads of Disruption: Competition Law perspective by Centre for Competition Law and Policy (CCLP) and the Centre for Studies in Banking and Finance (CSBF); organization of IV CARTAL Conference on International Arbitration with the theme Navigating Murky Waters: Uncertainties in International Arbitration with SIAC, ICC, Young ICCA, AFIA, MCIA, CiArb, VIAC, SAARC Arbitration Council (“SARCO”), Bar Association of India and Society of Indian Law Firms joined as the Institutional Partners of the Conference.

The University passionately adheres to the policy of consolidating and supplementing classroom learning by providing myriad pedagogical exposure to our students from multitudinous spheres with a kaleidoscopic perspective, to help them make informed career choices.
