COMMON LAW ADMISSION TEST (CLAT) 2022

PRESS RELEASE

CLAT 2022 CONDUCTED SUCCESSFULLY

The Consortium of National Law Universities (CNLU) successfully conducted the Common Law Admission Test 2022 today (19/06/2022) for Undergraduate and Post graduate admissions in 131 Examination Centres, across 84 locations in 25 States. We acknowledge the support of all the staff, faculty of the participating Universities and civil authorities for their comprehensive support and assistance and thank them. CLAT 2022 had 92% of the registered candidates taking the undergraduate examination and 87% candidates taking the postgraduate examination.

The Consortium will notify the Master Question Paper and Provisional Answer Key in the forenoon of June 20, 2022. Candidates may raise any concerns with the Questions and the Answer Key on the Consortium website as set out in such Notification.
