PRESS RELEASE

Consortium of National Law Universities Successfully Conducts CLAT 2025 Nationwide

The Consortium of National Law Universities (CNLU) has successfully conducted the Common Law Admission Test (CLAT) 2025, conducted seamlessly across 141 centers in 25 States and 4 Union Territories today. The exam witnessed an unprecedented participation rate, with 96.36% of Undergraduate applicants and 92.13% of Postgraduate applicants appearing for the test.

This remarkable turnout underscores the growing interest and enthusiasm among students aspiring to pursue legal education in India's premier law institutions. CLAT 2025 continues to uphold its legacy as a gateway for admission to the country's top National Law Universities (NLUs).

The Consortium expresses heartfelt gratitude to all stakeholders whose unwavering commitment ensured the smooth and glitch-free conduct of the exam. From dedicated administrators, coordinators, and invigilators to technical teams and volunteers, their tireless efforts played a pivotal role in creating a seamless experience for candidates nationwide.

The Consortium also acknowledges the support of participating institutions, government authorities, and local law enforcement agencies in maintaining security, fairness, and efficiency at all centers.

With the successful completion of CLAT 2025, the Consortium reaffirms its commitment to excellence in legal education and looks forward to welcoming the next generation of legal minds to the NLUs.

The Consortium will release the Provisional Answer Key on its official website on Monday, 2nd December 2024, at 4:00 PM. Candidates who wish to raise objections regarding the questions or the provisional answer key(s) may do so through the designated portal created for this purpose. The objection submission portal will open at 4:00 PM on 2nd December 2024 and will close automatically at 4:00 PM on 3rd December 2024.
